COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

The points system works as follows:

- The winner of each County competition will be awarded 25 points for their Club.
2nd 20 points; 3rd 15 points; 4th 10 points; 5th 5 points
- If a Club has more than one entry, the highest placed will gain points as shown above but each additional entry (up to a maximum of 3) will be awarded 5 points.
- Amalgamated teams in County competitions - the points won will be split equally between the Clubs making up the team.
- 10 points will be deducted from a Club's total for non-appearance if they have not cancelled their entry before the event.
- Teams / individuals going forward to Area and/or National Finals will be awarded 10 points. Winners of National Finals will be awarded 25 points.
- Points are awarded for Executive Committee attendance – 5 points for a member attending and 2 points for apologies received – up to a maximum of 15 points per Club per meeting.
- Club Officer Training – 10 points per role (3) and 5 points to each extra attending (up to a maximum of 40 points per Club)
- 10 points are awarded for attendance on Area or National training courses.
- 50 points will be deducted for each troublemaker as agreed by the Executive committee.
- 10 points will be deducted for each entry form received after the closing date.
- 25 points will be deducted for late return of County trophies.
- At the end of the year, points will be awarded to each Club for its percentage increase in membership – 25 points for the greatest, then 20, 15, 10 & 5 as above. Clubs whose membership falls will not be awarded points.
- YFC Travel trips and hosting exchangee – 15 points per hosting (providing accommodation) and per trip.
- Club Programmes sent in by 1st October – 10 points awarded.
- Club Accounts & AGM Minutes received up to 3 weeks after Club AGM – 25 points.
